

Sales Call Script

18-Section Framework

SECTION 1 — OPENING & HUMAN RESET

Goal: Disarm, slow the call down, remove pressure, establish normalcy.

"Appreciate you taking the time. No rush on my end — we'll just talk through what you've got going on."

"Before we jump in — where are you located?"

(Allow brief human exchange. Do not rush. This is not rapport for rapport's sake — it's tone-setting.)

SECTION 2 — BACKGROUND & AUTHORITY FROM THEM

Goal: Let the prospect prove they are competent. You never challenge it.

"How long have you been doing this?"

"Have you been consistently in it, or have there been breaks over the years?"

(Let them talk. Take notes. Never interrupt.)

If they have experience:

"Got it. So you're not new to sales — you've been around the block."

This subtly flips authority: you're not selling to them, you're collaborating with them.

SECTION 3 — CURRENT SITUATION DIAGNOSIS

Goal: Understand what they're already doing without criticizing it.

"What are you currently doing to generate business right now?"

"How long have you been doing that?"

"Over the last 30, 60, 90 days — how has production looked?"

If production is low or zero:

"Okay — that's helpful."

(Not: 'That's bad.' Just: data collected.)

SECTION 4 — VALIDATION BEFORE REFRAME

Goal: Remove defensiveness. This is critical.

"I don't want to sit here and tell you everything you've tried is garbage — that's usually not the case."

"A lot of times it's timing, volume, or small shifts in how things are being done."

This keeps the prospect open, not guarded.

SECTION 5 — MARKET CONTEXT (EXTERNALIZE THE PROBLEM)

Goal: Shift blame away from the prospect without excusing inaction.

"The last 6 months have been weird across a lot of industries."

"Platforms change things. Vendors change things. What worked six months ago doesn't always work the same way now."

Key line:

"That doesn't mean you're doing anything wrong."

---

SECTION 6 — VOLUME TRUTH (NON-NEGOTIABLE FRAME)

Goal: Establish a hard rule without sounding rigid.

"I'm really big on expectations."

"Do I think 10, 20, even 30 units of anything is a fair assessment? No — regardless of price or niche."

Let them agree.

"Volume solves a lot of problems."

Then:

"That's why we don't let people 'toe dip.' Minimum entry is 100 units."

This is said calmly, not defensively.

SECTION 7 — SOCIAL PROOF WITHOUT CHEST-BEATING

Goal: Normalize success without sounding salesy.

"We've done this with hundreds — now over a thousand — people in different markets."

"At that level of volume, people see results. They get conversations. They write business."

No hype. No screenshots. Just certainty.

SECTION 8 — BUYER ALIGNMENT (THEY QUALIFY THEMSELVES)

Goal: Confirm they're the right type of buyer.

If they mention follow-up discipline:

"If you weren't following up, I'd be concerned."

"Anyone who doesn't follow up shouldn't be buying leads at all."

This subtly positions you as selective, not desperate.

SECTION 9 — EXPECTATION LOCK

Goal: Pre-handle future objections before price.

"This isn't rainbows and butterflies."

"Some people won't answer. Some won't be ready today."

"But at scale, there are always enough conversations to produce."

This prevents future buyer's remorse.

SECTION 10 — GOAL EXTRACTION (THE REAL CLOSE STARTS HERE)

Goal: Anchor the sale to their number.

"What does success actually look like for you?"

Let them say the number.

Then:

"That's realistic."

Never oversell. Never inflate.

SECTION 11 — MECHANISM EXPLANATION (PLAIN LANGUAGE)

Goal: Explain process, not features.

"Here's how it works, start to finish."

Then calmly walk through:

- How people are identified
- How interest is confirmed
- How information is captured
- How delivery happens
- How follow-up is supported

Key principle: You are explaining flow, not pitching tools.

SECTION 12 — SUPPORT WITHOUT DEPENDENCY

Goal: Show support while reinforcing personal responsibility.

"We handle the systems."

"We give scripts, coaching, recordings."

"But the one variable we can't control is whether someone actually shows up and works."

This filters out tire-kickers without saying it directly.

SECTION 13 — PRICE (NO FLINCH, NO JUSTIFICATION)

Goal: Deliver price like a fact, not a pitch.

"Here's how pricing works."

State:

- Unit cost
- Minimum quantity
- One-time setup (if applicable)
- Any deadline-based incentive

Then stop talking.

SECTION 14 — STRUCTURED COMMITMENT

Goal: Reduce friction while securing the deal.

"What usually makes the most sense is locking the setup first, then funding delivery once everything's built."

"What start date works best for you?"

This assumes the decision is how, not if.

SECTION 15 — TIMING FLEXIBILITY (WITHOUT WEAKNESS)

Goal: Keep control even when accommodating.

"We can absolutely set kickoff for later."

---

SECTION 17 — OPERATIONAL HANDOFF

Goal: End clean, confident, and organized.

"You'll get an email with receipts, onboarding, and next steps."

"Once you're in Slack, we'll get kickoff scheduled."

No excitement spike. Calm certainty.

---

SECTION 18 — PERSONAL CLOSE

Goal: Leave them confident they chose a person, not a company.

"If you need anything, text me directly."

"We'll take care of you."

End.
